

wisconsin is a leader in protecting consumers' rights. The wisconsin statutes describing the "Do Not Call List" should not be tampered with by the FCC. The citizens of wisconsin are very pleased with this protection and do not want banks or other companies to have access to our private residences. Thank you.